UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF LAW

GPLLM Global Professional
Master of Laws

“Right away, I was able to put to work what I was learning – even as I was learning it.”

A Master's Degree that's unique in North America.

The Global Professional LLM is a 12-month executive-style Master of Laws offered during evenings and weekends and taught by leading legal experts and renowned full-time faculty. The GPLLM combines the best of U of T's reputation for academic excellence with the pragmatic real-world expertise that's the gold standard in business today.

It teaches lawyers, business leaders, and policymakers to think critically from a global perspective about key business decisions that impact every bottom line.

The GPLLM provides an intensive experience like no other. You'll examine the impact of globalization on laws, legal institutions and markets from a broad multi-disciplinary and comparative legal perspective. Through examples, case studies and real-life business deals you'll gain hands-on practical knowledge – and emerge a valued leader for your organization.

Equipped with a GPLLM, graduates add immediate value to their clients, businesses, organizations and agencies. So you'll be better prepared to ask the right questions when leading both domestic and cross-border transactions. In collaboration with local and foreign counsel, auditors, and other parties, you'll be better able to identify the issues and challenges arising from the globalized business environment.

What you'll take – and take away.

- A Master of Laws degree from Canada's top law school and one of the world's great law schools.
- A unique learning environment led by leading legal experts.
- Professionals from different backgrounds, industries, experiences and perspectives.
- Extensive business and alumni networks – for life.
- Career advancement via enhanced performance and leadership skills.
- A unique combination of legal and business expertise that will change the way you think.
- Analytical reasoning and insights that will boost your credibility and understanding, and put you a step ahead of your colleagues.
- A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that you can fit into your life and work.

“We get to interact with top lawyers, top legal professionals and top business leaders.”
